

Scottish Fire and Rescue Service

Strategic Plan 2022-2025

1. INTRODUCTION

We are delighted to introduce the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) Strategic Plan 2022-2025

As we approach our 10th anniversary in 2023, this is our fourth Strategic Plan and the first one that aligns to our Long-Term Vision for the Service which we published in 2021. In our Vision we set out our ambitions to be a progressive organisation, centred around people's needs, inclusive of all and better connected to our communities. This Plan marks the next steps towards realising that Vision. It also builds on our organisational Values, demonstrates our commitment to further modernising the Service by doing more for our communities and changing how we work. It further strengthens our approach to prevention while maintaining an excellent emergency response and addressing the repair and replacement challenges within our estate.

This Plan will deliver against the strategic priorities set out for the Service by the Scottish Government in the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022. It comes at an important time for Scotland as we recover and learn lessons from COVID-19. In response to the pandemic and to help Scotland recover from its impacts, the Scottish Government has committed to:

- Developing a progressive, wellbeing economy for Scotland
- Building public services on a person-centred basis
- Addressing issues of systemic social and economic inequality
- Strengthening partnership working across public services

As a Service committed to the Christie reform principles, we will play our part in achieving these wider ambitions for Scotland. In producing this plan, we have ensured that our actions will support these priorities for Scotland as we work to improve the safety and wellbeing of our communities.

Although we pride ourselves on our ability to plan our services for a future Scotland, the pandemic has shown it is impossible to fully predict the future. As such, we have set out what we need to achieve over the next three years within this Plan. We also highlight some of the challenges we are faced with and the barriers we will need to overcome to achieve more for Scotland. We must address the problems of an ageing estate and operating systems that need upgraded. We also need to maintain an extensive fleet of vehicles and equipment that supports what we do, whilst taking steps to reduce our carbon consumption. We will have to achieve this by working more flexibly across the whole country. But to do so, we will require significant investment and sustained commitment over the next three years and beyond.

Finally, the commitments within this Plan are only possible because of the excellent work of all our people. They are truly inspirational and we would like to thank them all for everything they do for each other and the people of Scotland. We would also like to thank our partners and communities who we proudly serve and who support us in what we do.

2. WHAT IS THE STRATEGIC PLAN 2022-25?

The SFRS was established in April 2013. Since then we have produced strategic plans every three years to detail the activities we undertake to contribute to the safety and wellbeing of Scotland's communities, whilst keeping our firefighters safe.

This Strategic Plan outlines the high-level outcomes through which we will continually work towards our overall purpose, as outlined in the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022: 'To work in partnership with communities and with others in the public, private and third sectors on prevention, protection and response to improve the safety and wellbeing of people throughout Scotland.'

The Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022 also sets for us seven strategic priorities and we have a statutory duty to have regard to these when developing our Strategic Plan:

- Prevention and Protection
- Response
- Innovation and Modernisation
- Climate Change
- Effective Governance and Performance
- Partnership
- People

SFRS Long-Term Vision

As well as considering the Fire Framework, this Strategic Plan supports the achievement of our SFRS Long-Term Vision. Our Vision is an aspirational document which was shaped by our staff and stakeholders. It sets out our future direction and outlines where we want to be in ten years' time. This Plan outlines the next stage in that journey.

Our Plan has been developed with these important documents in mind, with our seven Outcomes complementing the strategic priorities of the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland. We have developed this Plan in consultation with our people, a range of our partners across the country and the people of Scotland.

4. OUR SERVICE, OUR AMBITIONS FOR SCOTLAND'S COMMUNITIES

We are the fourth largest fire and rescue service in the world. Our key role will always be to respond to fires and other emergency incidents but we do much more than that. In communities across Scotland, you'll find us:

Promoting
fire safety

Enforcing safety
legislation

Responding to road
traffic collisions

Dealing with structural collapse of building

Responding to serious flooding

Responding to serious
transport incidents

Working with key partners to enhance
community safety

Planning for chemical, biological,
radiological and
nuclear incidents

Undertaking inland
water rescue

Carrying out
rescues at height

We firmly believe that the best way to deal with any type of emergency is to try and stop it from happening in the first place. With a key focus on prevention, particularly in support of the most vulnerable members of society, we work with our partners across the country to deliver: crucial fire safety campaigns; prevention interventions; and work on a wide range of public safety initiatives that keep people and businesses safe. Because of this and because our firefighters, both wholetime and on call, are so valued within their communities, we have an ambition to develop our offer to Scotland. As we develop this offer we must ensure that the facilities and equipment we use are of the highest standard. They need to be modern, purpose designed for the 21st century and safe for our people. This will help us retain those who currently work for us while attracting new people to help us become a more diverse organisation that reflects the communities of modern Scotland.

We will keep improving people's lives and the safety and wellbeing of the communities we serve; by reducing the risk from harm and working in collaboration with our partners and communities.

5. OUR OPERATING ENVIRONMENT FOR THE NEXT 3 YEARS

The delivery of this Plan will be influenced by the following challenges we face within our operating environment and how we will work to resolve them.

Recovering and learning from COVID-19

Throughout the pandemic, we adapted swiftly alongside our partners to provide life-saving and innovative services for our communities. The impacts of the pandemic are not over and will have a lasting effect on us, communities and businesses over the years ahead. It is imperative that we put key lessons we have learned from the pandemic into place to help us, and Scotland, fully recover.

Flexibility

Being a more flexible organisation was key to how we responded to the COVID-19 pandemic. We will maintain our agile and flexible approach to deliver what is required of us by our communities. This means avoiding a “one size fits all” mentality and approach so that we can respond to differing community needs appropriately.

Service Modernisation

We will develop our offer to communities as an emergency service based on a better understanding of changing risk and reshape the use of our resources and service activities. However, achieving more to support and safeguard our communities within existing resources will be our biggest challenge.

Budgeting Responsibly

Over the next three years we will face significant budgetary pressures in both our resource and capital budgets. We will be faced with high levels of inflation in the goods and services we need to purchase to deliver our services. We are likely to see challenges emerging for our people around the increased cost of living and the pressures this places on them and their households. We also face a significant and growing investment need in our estate which requires ongoing decarbonisation. Our buildings are ageing and many require substantial upgrading or replacement. Failure to invest in our estate will add further pressure to our resource budget as we increasingly spend more money to overcome the repair costs that come from an ageing set of buildings. We will always balance our budget; we are required to do so by law. However, given these pressures we will need to make hard choices on timing and financial capacity as we modernise the Service whilst maintaining current financial sustainability and budgetary control.

Climate Emergency

The impacts of climate change will increase over time. We will have to respond to more weather-related incidents which will increase in intensity, impact and frequency and continue to ensure our firefighters are properly trained, equipped and supported in this.

Demographic Change

People are living longer and care will increasingly shift from institutional settings towards home-based care. This change will generate new demands as Scotland seeks to support our population to age well in safe and resilient communities, while we work to reduce the risk of fire and other forms of unintentional harm within homes. We will continue our crucial work with communities and our partners to prevent such harm from happening and develop our service offer in supporting the vulnerable members of Scotland’s communities.

Place

We are a national service, delivered locally. We are committed to understanding the changing risks across the country and meeting community needs in ways that work best for them. We will support the wider public service reform agenda of adopting a place-based approach to how public services are designed and delivered. This will shape how we work to ensure that our communities are safer, stronger and more resilient.

Resilience

We play an important role helping communities become more resilient. Whether in safeguarding people and communities against the impacts of a pandemic, the effects of adverse weather events, dealing with the threat of terrorism and much more. There remains a vital need and a statutory duty for us to work with our communities and emergency service partners to prepare better to meet these threats as they evolve over time.

People

Ensuring the safety of our firefighters and ensuring the wellbeing of communities has always been at the heart of how we operate. This approach of putting people first remains at our core. We will continue to place a strong focus on meeting people's needs as we change how we work.

Engagement and Empowerment

To make good decisions you need to engage people in the decision-making process and empower them to make appropriate choices for themselves. We are committed to working this way, both with our own people and with our communities. This will help us arrive at better decisions which will make us a stronger and more successful organisation.

Managing Change

We have and will continue to run large change projects across the Service. Projects can range from introducing new technology systems, undertaking large scale building projects, working with suppliers to develop new types of emergency response vehicles, to changing the ways we work. Throughout the duration of this Plan we will further improve how we manage projects to ensure their effective and efficient delivery.

As we proceed over the next three years we will continually revisit our assumptions about our operating environment and how any changes may impact on how we will work. The detail in the following sections outlines what we will achieve over the lifetime of this Plan. How we will do so will be set out, scrutinised and monitored through both our Annual Operating Plan and Change Plan by our Board and the wider public as we deliver on this Plan's ambitions.

6. OUR OUTCOMES

OUTCOME ONE:

Community safety and wellbeing improves as we deploy targeted initiatives to prevent emergencies and harm.

WHAT WE WILL DO

We firmly believe that preventing problems from arising is better than dealing with them when they occur. Our approach to prevention helps people, communities and the economy stay safe and enables us to support work addressing wider inequalities. As we did during the pandemic, we will continue to share data appropriately with our partners to protect the vulnerable in our communities. To support Scotland's economy we will continue to enforce and provide advice around fire safety legislation to business owners in shops, offices, workshops and factories. We will further expand our prevention work to Scottish households and develop our prevention approaches to influence people's behaviours to help keep themselves safe and improve their wellbeing. We will build on the work with our partners to target education and safety initiatives to those who need it most, including the young and the vulnerable. We will develop our home fire safety visit programme to incorporate wider health and social care considerations and develop a coordinated approach to reducing unintentional harm throughout Scotland.

WHAT SUCCESS WILL LOOK LIKE IN THREE YEARS

By 2025 our prevention work will help individuals, communities, organisations and businesses feel more confident regarding safety within their homes, premises and localities. We will achieve this by:

We will have the best systems to direct our firefighting activities effectively and continue to ensure all our people have the right skills, training and equipment. We will continue to plan and respond with other emergency services to improve firefighter and public safety.

Our firefighters will remain fully trained and equipped to support communities in meeting extreme weather events. We will also make use of other local resources that are available to bolster our response during prolonged or widespread incidents. We will continue to work to reduce our own organisational impact on the environment by changing how we work, how we consume and manage energy and how we behave as we adapt to climate change. Reducing our carbon emissions is the first step in this journey. By 2045 we will become a carbon neutral organisation.
